LIFE IN THE BLITZ - A TRIP TO FLAMBARDS

By Lucy Seaston

On Monday morning Violet and Amber classes travelled to Flambards. We arrived at a quarter to ten, we walked over to our lunch place, we got split into groups. My group started in 'Britain in the Blitz', I could just imagine myself living there. One of the most scary bits was this blown up house with shaking floorboards. By the Anderson Shelter was an unexploded bomb. I learned so much about the Blitz, it was amazing.

eSchools UP AND RUNNING...

The eSchools platform on our school website has now been launched. Along with your newsletter this week, you should also receive a letter with your personal login details. Please have a look at the platform as soon as you can. We are hopeful that this will improve communication between home and school, making it quicker and easier for information to be shared.

There may of course be a few glitches; we sincerely hope this is not the case but if there are please let your child's teacher know and we will do our best to sort it out as quickly as possible.

REMEMBRANCE DAY 11/11/2014

We have many activities planned to commemorate the end of World War 1 one hundred years ago. As part of this we would like to invite parents and carers to see a film animation and talk by Andrew Tatham about a particular regiment, their personal history, their part in the war and the lives of subsequent generations. This film is part of an exhibition at Ypres and we hope that you will come along and share the learning with us.
